SIR

I have the honour to state that Messrs The Bangalore Woollen, Cotton, and Silk Mills, Co, Ltd, Bangalore City, have represented to me that entertainments given by the Mills' Dramatic Society be exempted from the operation of the provisions of the Entertainments Tax Regulation (No VIII of 1932) Section 8 (2) Copy of their representation dated 1-8-1933 is sent herewith for your reference The Mills' Dramatic Society exists for the promotion of industrial welfare and not for earning profits The performances are purely of a private character for the benefit of the workpeople and their families with a nominal charge for admission In view of the circumstances mentioned, I request that Government may kindly exempt the Mills' Dramatic Society from liability to pay the entertainment tax as provided for under Section 8 (2) of the Regulation Early orders of Government may be kindly obtained and communicated to me

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

DIRECTOR

Letter dated the 1st August 1933 from the Managing Director
The Bangalore Woollen, Cotton and Silk Mills, Co , Ltd , Bangalore
City, to the Director of Industries and Commerce in Mysore, Bangalore

At the request of the Mills' Dramatic Society, we write to enquire whether you would be good enough to put before Government the suggestion that the entertainments given by the Society shall be exempted from the provisions of the new Entertainments Tax Regulation. Owing to lack of proper accommodation in the Mill premises for large audiences, the Society is often compelled to hire theatres in the City (usually the Oosmania Theatre), but the performances are nevertheless purely private and confined to the workpeople and their families. Admission charges are nominal and do not cover the cost of production and theatre hire, and we have recently been asked by the Society to make a contribution which will cover their losses and at the same ^{time} enable them to popularise the entertainments by reducing still further the charge for admission.

Section 8 (2) of the Regulation provides for the exemption by Government of certain classes of entertainments, and as we feel quite certain that it was never the intention of the Legislature to tax the amateur entertainments given by a Society for the promotion of industrial welfare, we request you to be kind enough to put their representations before the Government and secure if possible the exemption they ask for.

Your sympathetic co-operation in this matter will be very much appreciated.

Exemption to the Dramatic Society of the Bangalore Woollen, Cotton and Silk Mills, Co, Ltd, Bangalore City, from liability to Entertainment Tax

With reference to your letter No L 1977/AMT 5-33-2 dated the 12th September 1933 on the above subject, I have the honour to state that it is understood that the Mill Dramatic Society has not been registered under the Mysore Societies Registration of 1904 and so it is not entitled to exemption as laid down in G O No L 1343-53 M I 275-32-30 dated 17-8-1933

As already pointed out in my letter of even No dated 23-8-1933 the performances of the Mills are purely of a private character for the benefit of the work people and their families with a nominal charge of admission

In view of the above I request that Government may, as a special case, ^{be pleased to} exempt the Mills Dramatic Society from liability to pay the Entertainment Tax as provided under Sec 8 (2) of the Regulation
